

Other Learning Support

Establishing a good relationship with potential students to both inform them and reduce the anxiety they may be experiencing is vitally important. It is well known that the establishment of a good relationship early in the process leads to increased enrolment, retention and higher achievement rates. Those learners who integrate with the institution early, stay on course! The following notes aim to increase your recognition of other forms of learning support that your organisation may be able to offer to students.

OTHER LEARNING SUPPORT

In addition to the learning support already mentioned, some colleges and universities may be able to offer other forms of student support for those students experiencing difficulties with their course work, including, for example, access to specialist software and equipment.
